

Peter Holcomb

I am a husband and father of two boys. Having worked in production management, sales, and live production with hobbies that include making things and reading, I have become a proficient and joyful problem-solver. I am looking to change careers, find my niche in the ever expanding world of web development and solve a new and exciting set of problems.

EXPERIENCE

Appliance Sales Specialist, Lowes; Phoenix, AZ — 2021 — Present

Sales Specialists are in charge of providing impeccable customer service while increasing sales and handling incoming customer issues.

Production Manager, Nokona Leather Goods; Phoenix, AZ — 2019-2021

As production manager it was my job to manage and train my team of 7 craftspeople. on new products and production techniques. This was to better serve our customers with faster deliver times and increased sales opportunities.

New and Used Internet Car sales, Sanderson Ford; Glendale, AZ — 2017-2019

Here I was tasked with responding to 30-35 internet leads a day via phone and email communication. I then walked with the customers through the, sometimes arduous, sales and finance process.

Production Manager, Church Unlimited; Corpus Christi, TX — 2015-2016

The production manager is responsible for training and quality control for 45 volunteers and the video production for each of the 5 weekend services. During the week the production team planned, shot, and edited all video needs for the church of nearly 10,000 attendees.
